JULY 2025 YOUTH DIRECTOR'S REPORT

This last month of the mission trip has been a busy one. Between VBS, mission trip prep, the trip itself, and cleanup time has flown by, and just now it feels like I am finally getting back to some normal ministry time.

The mission trip really taught some lessons this year, most notably that I think I really want to start working with our students on what it means to be a community and family. Our youth have the interesting layer that many of them are coming from different schools. Peace is truly the place where they get to know others and develop new relationships. The problem is, that we (myself included) don't do a great job growing new friendships. In the coming months, we are really going to focus on how we love those who walk through the door. In previous years, we have built a strong base of youth, now it is time for them to grow in how we reach out to both those out in the community, but also those right next to us.

Lately, I have been preparing for the sermon this weekend, and honestly the story of Martha and Mary has hit me in a completely new way. This is a beautiful story that does not take away from service, but instead puts service where it is supposed to be, behind time with Jesus. Here at Peace, we have done the mission trip for the past 5 years, and it has become an important part of our ministry, but especially now, as we talk about it, I am reminded of everything else we do and the importance of bringing our students to Jesus. We plan trips, lessons, events, etc., but all of those things are worthless if Christ is not at the forefront of them. I say this because as I plan for the upcoming year of confirmation and youth group, it has been a great reminder to me, and something I hope can really speak to our entire church.

Thank you for taking the time to read. I want to just share some reflections on what I have been thinking about lately. Below is a list of what I have been keeping busy with for the past month or so.

- Updating Youth Trip Policies and Paperwork
- Following up with each member of the mission trip to discuss their experience
- Reworking confirmation lessons for this fall
- Promoting youth events still left this summer
- Family Llama Day! (Around 40 members sharing time together!)
- Working on music for youth worship
- Lots of Mission Trip Cleanup!

As always, please reach out if you have any questions.

Mark

Peace Care Team Minutes 6/18/2025

Present: Stephanie Hanson, Sue Buelke, Mary Barfnecht, Pastor David

Absent: Cathy Reickenberg, Karen Lotito, Marla Erickson

Old Business:

- Card Box: Marla currently has. June/July: Stephanie, July/August: Sue, and August/ September:
- Mission Trip: Our youth and adults leave on Saturday. Last year we did a designed card and $5. Feel we have money in the budget, and you cannot eat at McDonald's with that amount of money. Motion made and voted upon to increase the donation to $10 for each mission trip attendee. Sandy has the cards made. We addressed them, and Mary will add the money. The total will be $320. Cards will be handed out by the Care team on Saturday morning after our prayers.
- Camp Trips: Checked with Mark, no students are signed up for July 13th -18th. Three students signed up for July 9-11th. We will also enclose $10 in a newly designed camp card for each camper. Total $30. Will check with the parents of each camper to get the cards to them.
- Our Daily Bread: We should get a large print to Mary Anne and to Glen Johnson.
- Day Brightener:
 - Mary Anne Hoese visit: Pastor and Mary went to visit Mary Anne. She was conversive and enjoyed our visit. She did not realize it was her birthday, but said "is it June 10th?" The staff brought out a sheet confirming it was her birthday! She received a box of chocolates and balloons with a card. Also very willing to receive communion and prayed the Our Father. Called Beth to let her know about our visit and sent her pictures that were taken.
 - Marla may be going to visit Robert Dean for his birthday in July, so that will be a nice brightener for him! Will get a card and announce so people from the congregation who knew him can sign.
- Grief Classes: We are drawing nearer to fall. We need to find a volunteer to do the Loss of a Spouse and Surviving the Holidays classes. As a group, we decided not to pursue the 13-week grief course, as it was poorly attended and a huge commitment. As previously discussed, we will ask Marla and Jim or Charlotte and Bill Helfritz to lead.

New Business:

- Ely's have moved and will be transferring to a church in Monticello. They have committed to helping with the corn feed. They have been active in Outreach, Altar Care, and lending the use of their fancy pickup. Feel we should recognize their commitment to volunteering at Peace. We discussed.
- Discussed moving our meeting time to an evening. Will check with Sandy to see where we could fit in, as we think it might be easier to find new members for our group. Could everyone ask someone this month to see if they would be interested in our group?

Care Team Minutes

July 9, 2025

Present:

Absent:

OLD BUSINESS:

- Card Box: July/August: Sue; August/ Sept: Sue; Sept/Oct: Kathy
- Mission Trip: Cards were distributed, each with $10, to all the participants and adults at the prayer service right before they left.
- Camper: Three boys left on Sunday for camp. I contacted Brianna St Aubin, and she picked up the camper cards on Saturday. They, too, had a gift of $10. So glad I had them ready to go as my notes said they were leaving on the 9th!!
- Our Daily Bread: Plan to visit Glen and Mary Ann to deliver, just have not made it this far yet.
- Day Brightener: Marla and Jim are visiting Robert for his 70th birthday. Good news is that he is not at the care center anymore but living with his son, Jonathan! They will be delivering a card that we had at the connect counter for those who remembered him to sign and write a note.
- Grief Class: Loss of a Spouse and Surviving the Holidays: Have yet to set dates and find a leader for these. I spoke to Marla, and she thought she and Jim would co-lead but were not interested in leading a group. The date will be November 16th for Surviving the Holidays. We could advertise this at our greeting table at the Corn feed if we got it together. It would be cool to create "What is happening at Peace from Corn feed to the end of the year," as a handout! If we are going to do this, we need to advertise for these or just table for this year.
- Remember to send our online member a birthday card, James Anderson, August 12th. August 27th is the first anniversary of Maggie's death. We have sent a card for the 1st anniversary.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Support for Bob and Jan: Bob is progressing and how do we as a family support them? Meals? Visits?
- Change of time for our meetings: Suggestions: Second Tuesday, 5:00 or 6:00 pm. Discussion. WE are leaving the meeting at the current time.
- Meal Train: Have not used in a while. We have offered for those recovering from surgery, with a new illness, after a death in the family, or after a complicated pregnancy or delivery. Recipients are very appreciative of the meals that have been brought. Our members bring the needs to our attention, and Sandy organizes the sign-up. We find out about food allergies, the anticipated length of need, and how many meals per week. This information is given to Sandy. Someone on our team is in conversation with the families about how they are doing.
- Discussion about the need to meet monthly. No decision was made and we will rediscuss.

Ted will see if that person is available to play special music on August 31st for Pastor's last service at Peace. Pastor is expecting about 50 guests that day.
