STRANGER THINGS

"The Bible stories you won't hear on Sunday morning."

This summer our mid-week worship series is called, "Stranger Things" as a nod to the very popular and edgy, sci-fi series on Netflix. An attention grabbing title for sure, but for our purposes we will look weekly at the "Stranger Things" in the Bible. These are the Bible stories you won't hear about on Sunday morning or in Sunday School. The six Bible stories are ones that may create more questions than answers. They are interesting but we may wonder why they were included in our Bibles.

Together we will carefully examine and thoughtfully seek God's meaning, plus have a little fun in doing so.

For instance on the first Wednesday of the series the message title is "Drop Dead Sermon." We will look at Acts, chapter 20. The story the Apostle Paul and how he preached for several hours until midnight. A young man named Eutychus is seated in the second floor window and falls asleep during this long sermon. Eutychus fall out the window, breaks his neck and dies. Paul goes down to the young man and raises him from the dead. Paul then proceeds to preach his sermon until dawn – a drop dead sermon wouldn't you say?

Other "Stranger Things" from Bible will include the story of an office affair and sexual temptation between Joseph (think musical) and Potiphar's wife – Genesis 39. We will look at Judges 14-15 and the story of Sampson's crazy marriage which we are calling "My Big Fat Philistine Wedding." Are you beginning to see the picture? I'm excited for this summer's series and I hope you will plan on joining us for worship on Wednesdays beginning in July. Come and worship!

Pastor David

Wed. July 10	"Drop Dead Sermon" Acts 20:7-13
Wed. July 17	"An Affair To Remember" Genesis 39
Wed. July 24	"My Big Fat Philistine Wedding" Judges 14
Wed. July 31	"Philip & Eunich" Acts 8:26
Wed. August 7	"Hair Club for Prophets" 2 Kings 2:23-25
Wed. August 14	"David & Bathsheba #MeToo" 2 Samuel 11

Graduate Recognition Sunday

On May 12, Peace Lutheran was privileged to celebrate with seven high school students and six college students on their graduation achievement.

High school students each received a hand-sewn quilt by the Women of Peace, a gift card from the Youth Activities Ministry Team, and a devotional book from the church family.

Congratulations to all of our graduates. We pray blessings on your future endeavors.

2019 PLC Scholarship Recipients

The Peace Lutheran Graduate Scholarship Program is an opportunity for the Congregation of Peace Lutheran Church to acknowledge and support the graduating seniors of the congregation in their continued education goals beyond High School.

Four students, Janessa Berrios, Matthew Clark, Nick Juncewski and Vanessa Schroeder, gave a presentation and were awarded a $200 scholarship on May 12th. The presentation included information about his/her faith journey, education plans after high school, and how his/her faith will impact those plans. The scholarship will be paid to their school of his/her choice.

Congratulations Confirmation Students

On Sunday, May 19th, Peace Lutheran Church joyfully welcomed two students into full membership as they publicly confessed their faith before family, friends, and fellow believers. Continue to pray for them as they press on in their "lifelong adventure of faith."

A special thank you to Colette Thorson, Jon Peterson, Ben Simon, Pastor David Hanson, and the confirmation mentors. They were a blessing to our students and congregation. Their love and dedication to our young people continues to build and nurture the future leaders of our church.

"Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" is a Hospitality-sponsored event that happens in the spring and fall. It's a great opportunity for members to get to know each other and have a fun evening of fellowship and dinner. On April 27th, three homes hosted a "Guess Who's Coming To Dinner."

This picture is from the dinner hosted by Clayton and Doreen Seal. The guests are Kevin & RaKel Shroeder, Joan & Paul Nesvold, and Adam & Sara Hanson. Doreen said "We really have a great time. RaKel brought a delicious spinach salad. Attached is the recipe for the dressing. It was soooooo good....Clayton asked for seconds and then asked me get the recipe."

Watch for details and join us for the next "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner."

Fresh Spinach Salad the Schroeders

- ½ cup sugar
- 1 cup oil
- ¼ cup vinegar
- ¼ cup ketchup
- ¼ cup chopped onion

Mix together and add to bacon, boiled eggs and fresh spinach just before serving.

The Armor of God

PRISCILLA SHIRER

Every Other Sunday at 5:00
Starting June 9th
(June 9, 23, July 7, 21, August 4, 18, 25)

All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams, your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you're tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, this study is for you.

The Enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. The Armor of God, more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory. (7 Sessions)

How & Why Dads Should Connect With Their Kids

by Dr. Meg Meeker

We have a national crisis on our hands: we are living in a culture that doesn't like dads very much. Media, music and magazines berate men. Advertisements on television portray fathers as weak, distant and stupid. One car commercial shows a father throwing a ball to his son. He is inept, but a voiceover informs viewers "at least he can leave the child his car."

I have seen the kids who have never known their fathers and ache for years over the loss. I have sat with young boys who have sobbed because their fathers took off across the country with another woman. I have spoken to girls who tell me they would do anything for their dads to pay attention to them. Life without involved fathers is a national crisis, but it is also a very personal one.

That's exactly why bashing fathers is so distasteful and harmful. Hollywood thinks it's funny, but it is high time we pushed back. Fathers are important, both scientifically and spiritually.

The Important Role of Fathers

Research reveals that fathers play a crucial role in the lives of their children.

1. Toddlers who live with a father are better at solving puzzles.
2. If a father reads to his child from age 6 months on, that child tests higher on IQ tests when she is 3 years old.
3. Kids who live in a home with their fathers are less likely to suffer from depression and anxiety or get involved in drugs, alcohol and sex when they are teens. They have higher self-esteem and a lower risk of suicide.
4. Kids who grow up with a father are more likely to finish high school and go on to college.

I could fill two pages with research showing the overwhelming benefits of an involved, loving father. This list alone shows that fathers are crucial to the physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual health of their kids.

Connecting With Your Kids

How can you connect better with your kids and fulfill the important role you play in their lives? Many fathers feel intimidated when it comes to getting closer to their kids, particularly with their teenage daughters. Your natural response when you're unsure is likely to withdraw from your kids, but this is the opposite of what you should do.

Instead, engage with your child. When your child is young, make sure to hug him or her a lot. Don't be shy about embracing your kids and engaging in physical play with them. Psychologists tell us that physical play and even a little rough housing is good for both girls and boys. So dads, get those kids outside and climb some trees.

As your child gets older, he or she still needs you involved. During the middle school years, kids become self-conscious and feel awkward, so they often back away when you want to hug them. Some kids will start refusing to do things with you and even get testy. When your 12-year-old does this, don't take it personally. The withdrawal has nothing to do with you and everything to do with them. When your son or daughter feels ugly, unimportant, fat, too tall, too skinny, too pimply, move in. Let that child know you will always love and accept him.

This means you need to change your strategy when it comes to showing affection and love. Be creative. Don't hug your child in front of friends. Don't boast about him in public. Honor his awkward feelings and show your child affection, respect and admiration in private. Understand that sons and daughters need affection, love and respect expressed in different ways.

Loving Your Daughter

There are quite a few practical ways to express your love for your daughter.

Touch her in a way that makes her feel comfortable. Let her take the lead. When you touch her, do so in a way that honors her discomfort with her changing body. Touch her on the head, pat or squeeze her shoulders. Look at her face and touch it in an affectionate way. There are many ways to express affection.

When showing affection, you can talk about strong character qualities that she has, such as patience, courage or integrity.

Engaging with your daughter can be difficult, too. Here are some great ways to connect with her.

Ask her to spend alone time with you once a week. Take her to breakfast, go for a bike ride or go to the garage and change the oil in your car – anything. The point is to let her know you want her company.

Praise her character. If she has a strong faith, courage or kindness, tell her you are proud of that. Think about Jesus and the disciples. They didn't talk about what others did but focused on living with the fruits of the Spirit. Do this with your daughter.

Loving Your Son

When it comes to being a good father to your son, you need to act a little differently because boys need different things from their fathers than girls do. Some things they need include respect, admiration, approval, affection and love. Every young man needs to know that his father approves of him. Men who never received a stamp of approval from their fathers live their adult lives driven to acquire it, even after their fathers have died. Don't let your son live without yours.

How do you give it? Tell him that no matter what he does – if he succeeds or fails – your love and admiration of him will never change. Communicating this in a sincere, heartfelt manner will shape the man he becomes.

Boys need respect from their parents, too. A young man who feels disrespected thinks he isn't worth much. Show your son respect in the way you talk to him. When he is a teen, refer to him as a man. When he is old enough, make sure he has a job outside the home. Many parents feel this is mean, but for a son it is a sign that you see him as strong and capable.

When it comes to affection, hug him. Tell him that you love him. Even grown men need to hear their fathers say they love them.

Spring Cribbage Tournament

The bi-annual Peace Lutheran Cribbage Tournament was held Friday, April 26 and was a great success.

There were two brackets of cribbage players. Each bracket had 6 teams for a total of 24 people playing cribbage. The winning pair of each bracket then competed for the cribbage tournament title. Carl & Faye Rothenberger competed against Sharon Weinzierl and Mark Weinzierl. In the end, Carl & Faye won the top spot. Congratulations to them both.

Various prizes were given for different levels of play. Thank you to Karen Lotito and Beth Seefeldt for securing donations from businesses and/or personally donating items. Thank you also to Watertown Fuel & Food for the grand prize and runner-up gift certificates.

The event is organized by the Hospitality Team and is held twice a year, once in the spring and again in the fall. Watch the worship bulletin and website for details of the next tournament.

First Place Winners
Carl & Faye Rothenberger

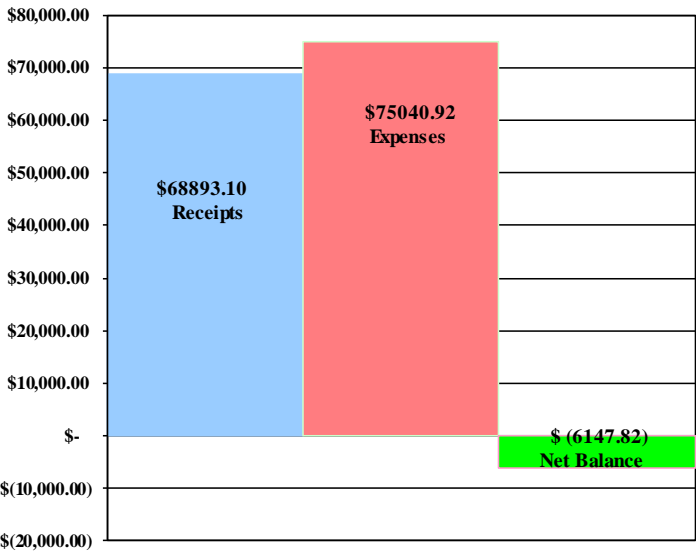

Second Place Winners
Sharon Weinzierl &

Cuban Mission Noisy Offering

On Sunday, June 2nd, we were blessed to have Omesimo "Oni" Aleman join us for worship. He shared with the congregation about the Cuban Mission and his part in helping that mission.

This winter's Noisy Offering was donated to help support Pastor Elmer David Entenza Madrigal motorcycle mission (one of the Cuban missions Oni helps with.) As an outreach to the people of his community of San Andrés, Pastor Elmer attached a cart to a small motorcycle and uses the cart to help get people around (such as going to church, hospital or visiting family). Very few people in Cuba have a vehicle of any kind. They have to walk, ride a bus, or use a horse and wagon. This motorcycle is the transportation for the entire village.

The children of Peace presented Oni with a check for $928.44 from the Noisy Offering collections to help pay for maintenance and repairs for Pastor Elmer's motorcycle.

MAY'S BIBLE QUIZ QUESTION - Who was the spiritual father of Timothy? Paul

Lucille Ball, shortly before her death, did a remarkable TV interview with Merv Griffin. He asked her a very serious and pointed question: "Lucille, you've lived a long time on this earth and you are a wise person. What's happened to our country? What's wrong with our children? Why are our families falling apart? What's missing?" Lucille Ball answered without hesitation: "Papa's missing. Things are falling apart because Papa's gone. If Papa were here he would fix it."

"Fathers are the great gift-givers of the world!" (Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, founder of Father's Day)

"One father is worth more than a hundred schoolmasters." (George Herbert)

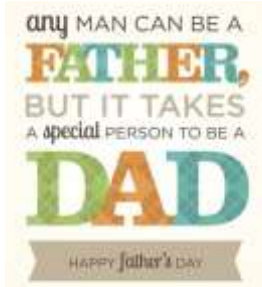

Father to teenage son: "No, you can't use the car—but please feel free to use the lawnmower." (Vern McLellan)

"The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother." (Theodore Hesburgh)

"My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it." (Clarence Budington Kelland)

"You don't raise heroes; you raise sons. And if you treat them like sons, they'll turn out to be heroes, even if it's just in your own eyes." (Walter Schirra Sr.)

"It is a wise father that knows his own child." (Shakespeare)

"God is the Father who is always home." (Unknown)

"Of all nature's gifts to the human race, what is sweeter to a man than his children?" (Cicero)

Small boy's definition of Father's Day: It's just like Mother's Day only you don't spend so much. (Unknown)

Jim Bishop describes the feeling a father had when his daughter became engaged: "This is the third of four daughters. Every time it happens, I'm obsessed with the feeling I'm giving a million-dollar Stradivarius to a gorilla."

"A father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic...A father never feels worthy of the worship in a child's eyes. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks, never quite the man his son believes him to be, and this worries him, sometimes. So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him...Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough, so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's. Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who'll live the longest. One day they lose and the bet's paid off to the part of them they leave behind." (Paul Harvey)

After the assassination of President Kennedy, his young son, John Jr., asked William Haddad, an associate of JFK's, "Are you a daddy?" Haddad told him that he was. In response, little John Jr. said, "Then will you throw me up in the air?"

Happy Father's Day
